The Philippines, a multi-racial nation, has been strongly influenced throughout its long history by large migrations of Malays, Chinese, Spanish, and Americans. For over 100 years, Americans have played a key role in the development of the Philippines by providing aid in the form of military presence, food and medicine. Yet today, the struggle continues to grow for this nation. Here's your chance as an American to provide spiritual aid with your messages of hope and inspiration.

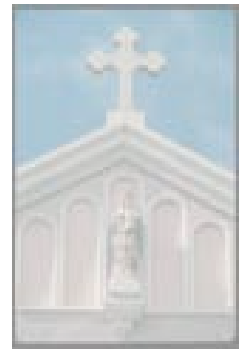

The Philippines continue to be plagued by internal differences, strife and Communist insurgency. Here is your chance to make a difference! Imagine your spiritual messages being broadcasted to these regions. According to the station manager 70% of the population within the station's coverage area actively listen to DWSS - 1494 AM!
